SUMMARY

I am eager to apply my skills in the MERN stack, JavaScript, Core Java, C, and C++ to develop innovative and efficient solutions. As a fresher, I have a strong self-driven attitude and the ability to quickly learn and adapt, demonstrated through my experience completing standalone projects independently. I am passionate about creating robust server-side applications that support business growth. My dedication to continuous learning and problem-solving helps me deliver quality results and stay updated with emerging technologies. I am enthusiastic about joining a dynamic team and a forward-thinking organization where I can contribute, grow professionally, and collaborate to achieve shared goals.

PROJECT

Campus Connect

Full-Stack Developer / MERN Stack, Cloudinary

- Developed a web platform to facilitate communication among students, teachers, and college administration
- Enabled sharing of notes, assignments, notices, and academic resources
- Used MERN stack for full-stack development and Cloudinary for image/file storage
- Independently handled UI design, backend API creation, and deployment

ChatAI

Full-Stack Developer / MERN Stack, Google Gemini API, Socket.io

- Built a real-time chat application with one-on-one and group messaging capabilities
- Integrated Google Gemini AI for instant query resolution and problem-solving
- Implemented real-time communication using Socket.io with MERN stack
- Solely responsible for end-to-end development and deployment

Uber Clone

Full-Stack Developer / MERN Stack, TomTom API

- Created a ride-hailing app featuring user registration, ride booking, driver tracking, and payment processing
- Integrated TomTom API for real-time map and location tracking
- Developed full-stack solution using MERN stack, handling frontend and backend independently
- Delivered a functional, user-friendly ride-sharing application
